DEMOCRATIC NOVIFICATIONS.

For Governor, J. A. SHBEL P. WILLARD, of White.

Ex. Lieut. Governor, JOHN C. WALKER, of LaPorte.

Secretary of State, DANIEL MCCLURE, of Morgan.

For Auditor of State, JOHN W. DODD, of Grant.

For Treasurer of State, AQUILLA JONES, of Bartholomew.

For Attorney General, JOS. E. MCDONALD, of Montgomery.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, WILLIAM C. LARRABEE, of Putnam.

For Clerk of Supreme Court, WILLIAM B. BEACH, of Boone.

For Reporter of Decisions of Supreme Court, GORDON TANNER, of Jackson.

Ref. D. STEELE of Ohio expected to preach to-morrow in the 1st Presbyterian Church.

Done at Louisville—By the congressional news in another column it will be seen that the fusionists with their two-thirds majority have at length succeeded in electing Banks Speaker by a bare majority of three! This is truly a glorious result of nine weeks' congressional work. The old tale of the mountaineer in labor divides in insignificance before the mountain which crowns the labors of the present Fusion Congress.

We are fully satisfied with the choice of Speaker. The House is largely fusion, and it is better they have a Speaker of their own sort, and own choosing. The democrats are in a great majority in the House, and it is right to let the fusionists bear the full responsibility of the tally and mismanagement which will surely mark the proceedings of the present Congress.

The President's Message on Kansas Affairs, an extract of which will be found in our first page, is an admirable document, and must meet the approbation of every friend of order and lover of the Union. It presents a fair and candid view of the actual state of affairs in that disturbed territory, showing in what respect the free sojourners in that land, and in what the "older ruffians" deserve a name. The doctrine of self-government, and the right of the territory to regulate its own internal affairs without the interference of neighboring states, is vindicated, and such action recommended to Congress as will secure to the people of Kansas the undisturbed enjoyment of their rights. We regret we have not room to publish the Message entire.

Transferred to England.—The appointment of Mr. B. as Minister to England has been confirmed by the Senate. This is an appointment evidently "fit to be made," and one that will be general satisfaction throughout the country. He had been considered a prominent candidate for the next Presidency; but his acceptance of the mission to England indicates that he does not seek the nomination. This will strengthen Mr. Buchanan's chances by giving him the divided support of Pennsylvania in the National Convention, and making him, at present, one of the most prominent candidate for the Presidency.

Sam driven out of Wheeling.—At the recent election in Wheeling, Va., the anti-slavery party elected 21 out of 22 Councilmen. For the last year or two Sam has had it all his own way in Wheeling; but the sober second thought of the citizens has now routed him out thoroughly. Known nothingness, etc.

Vice is the master of such trifling men, That to be hanged needs but to be seen."

The WEATHER continues cold and the sloughing frost. Never with the recollection of "the old inhabitant" have we had so long and uninterrupted a season of cold dry weather, and good shooting. On Sunday morning last the thermometer stood 14° below Zero, and on Monday 18° below. The weather has since moderated, and is now comparatively mild and pleasant.

The unusual and extreme cold has extended throughout the south. The port of Richmond, Va. is frozen up for the first time in many years. At Memphis the citizens are staying away in 14 inches thick of "their own raising," a thing unprecedented. The Mississippi is full of floating ice as low down as Natchez. The Texas papers do speak of severe frosts. The present winter is without doubt the coldest ever experienced.

Cincinnati, Union, & Fort Wayne Railroad.—This road, notwithstanding the pressure of the time, is slowly but steadily progressing. Twenty miles from Union to Portland, is nearly ready for the rails, which the company propose to purchase by the sale of mortgage bonds. The distance from Fort Wayne to Union is 65 miles, thence to Cincinnati, 107 miles, the road has been some time in operation.

The annual report of the President, thus speaks of the connections and through business of this road:

"In addition to the large amount of local business which our road will have, and which is the most reliable and profitable business for a railroad, our road will have so many and such valuable connections as to give it a good through business. It will be the direct line from Fort Wayne, and all the roads centering there, to Dayton & Cincinnati. By the Fort Wayne and Western road now in a forward state of construction, we will have the most direct line from Dayton to Cincinnati, and thus have all the travel from Chicago to Boston, and points east and south of that city. It will form a part of the great Cincinnati and Mackinaw line, as the great railroads entering at Fort Wayne will run it proper to make Fort Wayne a point on the Cincinnati and Mackinaw railroad. At Fort our road will also connect with the Wabash Valley and the Western & Lake railroads. At Union, the southern terminus of our road, in addition to our connection through the Greenville and Miami, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroads, to and from Cincinnati, we will connect with the Wabash, Pittsburgh, and Cleveland railroads, and thus carry all the travel from Adams, Wells, and Jay counties to Indianapolis, the capital of the State. We will also connect with the Bellefontaine and Indiana, and the Columbus, Piqua, and Indiana railroads, and thus form direct connections with the East and South East, to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and Wabash."

Dye's Book Note Plat: Delicacy.—This is a large book of nearly 300 pages, giving a full and correct description of every genuine bank note in the United States or Canada. To the business man this work must be invaluable, enabling him at once to detect any spurious or altered bills.

The book has been prepared with great care and labor, at a great expense, and is deserving the general patronage of the business community.

The London Times of the 10th inst. has an article in which it points out to Russia and other powers the fallacy of supposing that the readiness of England to make peace was at all proportional to its unwillingness to commence war. It says:

"The nation has got the first shock, and is beginning to make an effort of which a little time ago was regarded with aversion and horror. There is a strong sentiment which repels at the termination of hostilities, but we have had the opportunity of putting forth our whole strength, and vindicating our ancient renown. We mention these facts for the want of peace, the preliminaries of which have as it appears been signed between Esterhazy and Nostitz, for the present tenure of the public mind of England, any attempt, however slight, to renew the diplomatic maneuver would result in immediate explosion of popular feeling, which might render it impossible to proceed further in a pacific direction."

Frank Leslie's Publications.—We are under renewed obligations to Mr. Leslie for early copies of his different publications. His Illustrated Newspaper, we are pleased to learn, has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations, and may now be considered one of the "institutions" of the day. Such a Journal has long been needed in this country, and the success of this publication clearly evinces Mr. Leslie's ability to supply the wants of the public. His Gazette of Fashions has become indispensable to all who make any pretension to fashion or taste; and his New York Journal is one of the most readable and popular publications of the day. ties to the dangerous condition of these bridges. Cosmopolitan Art Association.—Postponed. We will not undertake to decide where the responsibility rests; but one thing is certain—some one is in fault, and will be liable to heavy damages if the parties suffering through their neglect see fit to resort to the law for a remedy; and we will advise all who suffer any injury on these bridges to bring suit at once for the recovery of damages.

Greely on Brenton.

Horne Greely is "pitching" into our worthy Representative in a manner that most occasionally reminds him in the midst of the turmoil of politics by which he is surrounded, of that good book which says—"the way of the transgressor is hard."

After charging Mr. Brenton with having turned traitor to the sentiments he was elected to represent, and having basely sold the men who condoned him, he says:

"The police records of all countries show that there is a class of men to whom it is of no use to preach, and upon whom all exhortations to pursue a life of honesty are thrown away, and treated with ridicule. In the annals of crime there are professional pick-pockets, burglars, confidence men, thieves, and rogues of every kind and degree, who resolutely pursue their occupation, regarding a detection and a temporary residence in the penitentiary or prison simply as an accident, or disagreeable episode in their career. But they never take it as a practical hint that they had better improve their morals and change their course of life. They cannot be made to believe in the doctrine that honesty is the best policy."

This classing of Mr. B. with "professional robbers, pick-pockets, confidence men," &c. must sound rather harsh in the ears of those who have been accustomed to look upon him as all but a saint, and Mr. Greely as the very pink of truthful, honest fusionists. They must now see they have been slightly mistaken in one of the men—which it is, or if not both, we leave them to determine.

Again. Certain members of Congress having signed a protest against Greely's course towards the Rev. gentleman, Horace humbly apologizes by expressing his deep regret that he made the attack, not because it was unjust, or that it had been to injure the gentleman, but because it had resulted in exciting a sympathy for Mr. Brenton which he is not entitled! Such an apology may perhaps have been considered amply sufficient, but to our view of the matter, it does not place our master in a much better position than he occupied before the apology.

"Sam" driven out of Wheeling.—At the recent election in Wheeling, Va., the anti-slavery party elected 21 out of 22 Councilmen. For the last year or two Sam has had it all his own way in Wheeling; but the sober second thought of the citizens has now routed him out thoroughly. Known nothingness, etc.

Arrival of the Arabia.—Highly important from the Arabian Gulf.—Peace Probable.

HALIFAX, January 31—12 P. M.

The Conrad steamer Arabia from Liverpool with dates to Saturday morning, January 19th arrived here this evening with one hundred and seven passengers.

The steamer Asia arrived out on the 13th, and the Baltic on the 17th of December.

Nothing of importance has been received from the China. The news generally is important, as indicative of an early peace.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times telegraphs under date of Wednesday, December 16, ten o'clock A. M., that Russia has unconditionally accepted the propositions of the Allies. This is reported as authentic. This news caused immense sensation. The funds rose three per cent., Cotton a farthing, and a panic ensued in other markets.

The next day the English government published a dispatch from Minister Seymour, at St. Petersburg, as follows:

"Russia agrees to accept the allied proposals as a basis of negotiations."

This final fact announcement curtailed the excitement, and alarmists began to fear that Russia merely wishes to gain time by deceptive negotiations.

Meantime the funds remain steady as previous to the above announcement.

The actual fact are that Count Nesselrode, upon being handed the Austrian and Allied note, was informed by Count Esterhazy that he was not authorized to enter into a discussion, but if not authorized to enter into a discussion, but if the note was not accepted unconditional before the 18th he and the Austrian embassy must leave St. Petersburg.

To prevent this, Nesselrode communicated with Vienna direct, and Prince Gortschakoff at St. Petersburg had a talk with Count Buol, in which the former produced a memorandum, expressing the general inclination of Russia to negotiate, but proposing certain alterations.

Count Buol received the document, but inasmuch as it did not contain an unconditional acceptance of the propositions, Austria could not reply with the concurrence of France and England.

The Embassadors of those powers accordingly sent to London and Paris, and received in reply dispatches stating that the Western powers had no motive to change their decision, already carefully considered; and further, that if Russia did not accept by the 18th, Count Esterhazy and the Austrian Legation would leave St. Petersburg, and Austria seek the armed co-operation of the German Diet.

Vienna papers represent affairs as most serious and alarming, and that all the persons of the Austrian Embassy have received orders to quit St. Petersburg and the Russian Embassy to leave Vienna.

During the week elapsing between Russia's first and second reply intense apprehension existed at Vienna, but on the 16th these apprehensions subsided by the announcement above stated that Russia agrees to negotiate upon the terms proposed.

BANKS ELECTED SPEAKER!

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

The House refused one majority to table Mr. Hickman's resolution to elect a Speaker by plurality vote. Resolution rejected—108 to 110.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee offered, as an olive branch, a resolution that Mr. Oliver of Missouri be chosen Speaker.

Tabled by 15 majority.

Mr. Lindley offered a resolution declaring Mr. Porter, of Mo. Speaker. He said that Mr. Porter was unobjectionable to all being neither a K. N. nor a Democrat; not the least tainted with Republicanism, but an old-fashioned Whig, which every body seemed to think, now that the party was dead. [Laughter.] Tabled by 75 majority.

Mr. Ball submitted a resolution, declaring Mr. Banks Speaker. Negative by 102 against 115.

Mr. C. Aiken, of Col., offered a resolution declaring Mr. Banks Speaker. Negative by 102 against 115.

Mr. R. D. STRIKE, of Ohio is expected to speak to-morrow in the First Presbyterian Church.

Dise of Last.—By the congressional man in his last column it will be seen that the fusion of the two-thirds majority have at length succeeded in electing Banks Speaker by a bare majority of three. This is truly a glorious result of nine weeks' congressional work. The old tribe of the mountaineers in labor defined its influence before this month, which crowned the labor of the present Fusion Congress.

We have fully satisfied with the choice of Speakers. The House is largely fusion, and, I trust, they have a Speaker of their own, and, and electing. The democrats are in a great majority in the House, and it is right to let the democrats bear the full responsibility of the care and management, which will surely mark the proceedings of the present Congress.

The President's Message in an Annual Affairs, an extract of which will be found on our first page, is an admirable document, and more meet the probation of every friend of order and law of our Union. It presents a fair and candid view of the actual state of affairs in that distracted country, in which the people are to act as in India, and in what the "other nation" deserves. The doctrine of self-government, and the right of the territory to regulate its own internal affairs without the interference or invasion of neighboring states, is vindicated, and such action recommended to Congress as will secure to the people of Kansas the immaterial enjoyment of their rights. We regret we have not seen to publish the Message entire.Speaker to England.—The appointment of Mr. Dallas as minister to England has been confirmed by the Senate. This is an appointment evidently "to be made" and one that will give general satisfaction throughout the country. He had been considered a prominent candidate for the next President, but his acceptance of the mission to England reflects that he does not wish to injure the gentleman, but because it had been resolved in existing a sympathy for Mr. Breckinridge, he is not entitled. Such an apology may perhaps have been rendered ample enough, but it is a view of the matter, it does not place our member in a much better position than occupied before the apology.Agen's desire at of Wheeling.—At the recent election in Wheeling, Va., the unknown nothing selected 21 out of 22 Unionists. For the last year or two Sam has had it all his own way in Wheeling, but the sojourner thought of the citizen has now rested him out thoroughly,

That is to be used to his best.

The unusual and extreme cold has extended throughout the south. The part of Richmond is frozen up for the first time, in many years.

At Memphis the citizens are staying away for 11 inches thick of "their own making," a thing unprecedented. The Mississippi is full of floating ice, so low down as Nashville. The Texas papers have spoken of severe frosts. The present winter without doubt the coldest ever experienced.
